MERRY CHRISTMAS

*The editor, his elf and all committee members wish each and every one of you a very Happy Christmas and Prosperous 2000!

NATURE

Now it's winter, don't forget the wildlife in your garden. Even if it feels warm, there is little food for birds, squirrels, hedgehogs or other small animals.

Little bits of bread, nuts, apple or fat left out will ensure that the wealth of wildlife in the area will survive to enthrall us in spring.

From the Chairman....

You may see the shrubs, designed as part of the traffic calming scheme, planted at last. In the wake of the gas works along Princes Avenue, we have pointed out to the planners that this is perfect timing, while pedestrians are duly keeping to the pavement, the desire lines being unavailable....

Have you any ideas, or a buyer, for 6 Westbourne Avenue? We would like to see its future as secure as its past; it stands in its lovely garden, everyone's dream house - yet there are plans for "development".

TREE CARVING

Now here is an idea. The tree stump in Park Avenue has been earmarked for carving in 2000. The theme? It's up to the children, ages 2-18. What we want you to do is to draw anything - something which is important to you, or something you care about. All drawings to be handed into the addresses given below.

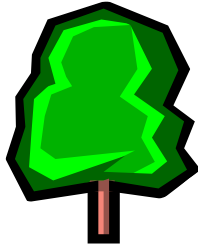

All drawings will be looked at and the best ones used on the tree. Don't worry if your design is not chosen, as all drawings will be used in an exhibition at the Avenues Centre and the QuayArt shop in the Princes Quay.

So, come on! Show us, and the City, what you can do.

Hand your designs into: Mrs Hotham, 154 Park Avenue
Mr Wright, 125 Park Avenue
Mr Colquhoun, 83 Park Avenue

or any other committee member.

More details about the sculptures and Dawn Summer, the sculptress, are available on the Avenues ONLINE Website.

NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

We know you have probably heard enough about the Millennium. Hopefully you will all know what you are doing. You will also probably know that traditionally some residents have congregated around Park Avenue fountain at midnight. Last year, about 100 made it! It was just a pity that the fountain was missing. So, this year, lets try and break a record. Westbourne Avenue has a fountain, so we will congregate there and try for 200 people - or more!!

Who needs a dome to celebrate?

CAROL SINGING

This year, Carol Singing is in aid of the NSPCC, and takes place on Monday 20th December, starting at 6pm. Meet at the Park Avenue fountain. Last year it was clear that the large group could not do justice to the task, so if this year a similar number turn up, we will split and take two routes round the Avenues for 2 hours. Both routes will end at 83 Park Avenue, Ian Colquhoun's house for mulled wine and mince pies, kindly provided by his wife and himself.

It is always a very enjoyable occasion and for a good cause, so we hope to see many of you there.

INSURANCE

Thank you to everyone who has responded to our request for insurance companies - still a very small percentage of residents, but enough to start compiling a list of companies who will insure, or brokers who can arrange to insure all properties in the area. We hope to be able to have this prepared in the New Year.
